TALLER DE-LIRIO

Near Lake Patzcuaro in the small town of Huecorio, Mexico, artist Esteban Silva and his wife Tania Dominguez are working to bring attention to the slow destruction of the lake by an invasive water plant, the water hyacinth. Esteban and Tania responded to this environmental crisis by removing and making paper from the hyacinth. They use this paper to promote awareness and community involvement through their studio, Taller De-Lirio.

In 2017, Taller De-Lirio invited painters and engravers to participate in a poster project "SOS for Lake Patzcuaro" and the result was surprising. They ended with a collection of 64 posters by 32 local artists, addressing the environmental and social themes of the lake environment. The paper and graphic project was carried out in conjunction with their group of paper workers at Taller De-Lirio and the invited artists.

THE BIGGER PICTURE

The Shoreline Community College Art Gallery is proud to present an exhibition that celebrates creative visionaries among our staff and faculty from all departments and disciplines. Through visual, performing and literary arts, they connect with students and surrounding communities in diverse and inspiring ways. This exhibit honors these big picture thinkers from a variety of fields across campus who participate in artistic practices both in their personal lives and through student engagement.
