Welcome, Introductions, Agenda updates:

- Agenda approved

Approval of the February 2021 Meeting Minutes:

- Minutes approved

College updates:

- President retiring
- Dean Wright leaving

Enrollment Updates:

Program update- intro full waitlist; others decent but as typical for more advanced

CJAC update:

- Full classes with waitlist
- Brainstorming on CJAC
- Network with departments to put as a desired qualification on PST.com
- Tuition reimbursement
- Points for hiring

- Testimonials from departments/attendees
- Network with recruiters with departments and explain the program and what it is
- Elizabeth Tiswell indicated it would be something they would hire for in DVS. They have done away with some of the formal requirements and are looking for soft skills/human relations/emotional intelligence etc.

1. General Ed Outcomes for Pathways: desirable traits outside technical skills:

- Problem-solving
- Interpersonal skills
- Communication skills
- Emotional intelligence (empathy, etc.)
- Self-regulation – anger management
- Adaptability
- Resilience
- Ethics
- Officer Wellness – to be at their best emotionally and physically
- Active listening skills
- Being able to pivot- try a new approach
- Knowing boundaries
- Know what “public trust” means and how to earn it. Earn it every day with every action and interaction that every individual officer does

2. Specific examples of when they don’t live up to these expectations:

- None needed/none given
- The overwhelming response was watching the news/reading the headlines. When things don’t go right in LE that is where it ends up.

Other discussion: Incorporating Blue Courage and some new CJTC online programs into our CJ program – internship? Another class? Food for thought – not available yet.

Next meeting is Wednesday Nov 10, 2:30 - 4 p.m. (A deviation due to WASPC and Veterans Day)
